

Library Policy Agreement

Children

The Goodrich Memorial Library assumes no responsibility for children of any age left unattended at the library. Parents or legal guardians are always responsible for the safety and well-being of their children and will assume all liability for vandalism or damage done by their children to the library facility.

Adult supervision is required at all programs involving youth, in accordance with the Library's Children Policy. The Library

The Goodrich Memorial Library reserves the right to deny attendance, to remove or have removed any person or persons that are in violation of any rules, guidelines, or policies established by the Library Director and the Board of Trustees. This extends to anyone becoming disruptive to audience members or the program presenter

Agreement

I have read and understand the above policies.

I recognize my responsibility to ensure that my child participates only in those activities for which he/she has the required skills, qualifications, training and physical conditioning. I understand that Goodrich Memorial Library shall have no responsibility to pay for medical treatment and related costs if said minor child is injured.

I agree, personally and on behalf of the minor named below, to assume all the risks and responsibilities surrounding my child's participation in the Goodrich Summer Youth Program.
